

The teachers at Robert College will be so changed next year I shall hardly have a place of remembrance among them. Only Mr. Pandretoff of all who used to frequent my room & find a home there. I hope he won't stay in the routine of Robert College forever. I think he needs something more to develop his powers - don't you? You must find a place for him as Director in a Bulgarian College & with you & Stocloff & Latzeoff & others who are familiar with college course & discipline you would achieve a grand success - especially if he gets a woman for a wife who will be a stimulus & help to him.

You have now no need to worry over your care of the Bulgarians with your faithful coadjutor Pandretoff to help. Your account of the riots made me long for some. Though I knew very well from past experience that yours would ~~be the~~ & perform the other part of the house - I had
