thing & interest one here - Murphy, a great apostle of temperance is holding lectures every eve - this week & I hope to hear him once - I have had calls every day & been obliged to talk quite enough to exhaust my little stock of strength - Dr. Riggins before bed-time & I get rested & "sleep like a top" - What does the Prof. write you of his plans? I thought I had had a letter like yours from him - but did not - Will all the Bulgarians back to Constantinople now the Russians are so near? I hope he is gaining strength fast - He pretends to be very much charmed with the girls in Prague! He doesn't probably think of "sour grapes" - Mary Jewett tells me that my dear little bird is dead.
Mr. Nasion sent me a programme of the Armenian drama - Is the Scotsman mentioned the one from Brousa whom I know? Thank Mr. Thomson for his nice letter - When he comes to America may I be there to see!
I understand Dr. Washburn is quite unable to make appeals for the College - It is fortunate that Robert has plenty of money & he may need & spend it in a better cause - What do you hear of old students who have been in Bulgaria during the war?
