

Mrs N 1753

and now he is undoubtedly better in that righteousness.

George writes every week. He is very well & enjoying college life.
My Father too is quite well. but his only remaining sister died in Nov. He loved her very much & feels lonely & old. being the only one of the family left. Mrs Kambin is not at all well.

Poor Costi, the table waiter, went crazy last week. so we had to send him to the Greek hospital at Baluka.

Please give my kind regards & expressions of sympathy to your Mother & remember me also to Mrs Paroutoff. about: He is suffering from his eyes just now. has strained them by reading too late & too much - & now cannot use them but very little.
