

I wish I could give a better report of my husband's health. When he is at home at his Father's doing nothing he feels pretty well. but the excitement of preaching or lecturing he can not bear. it gives him head-ache or neuralgia and indigestion. yet he is uneasy to be doing nothing.

On Tuesday evening of this week. he spoke to a company of gentlemen & ladies. about one hundred & thirty. rich or influential. all of them gathered in Mr Warren's house. He told them of the poverty of the country of the necessity of helping the young men of the present generation. to get an education. that whatever the issue of the war may be they may be prepared to take the lead & influence their people for good. He explained to them first about the different Christian nationalities. their relations to the Turkish Gov. the efforts they
