ever did for the entertainment of both teachers & students. I wonder at her strength to do so much. taking a large share of both Miss Haynes' & my work.
I shall write to her soon. also to Mr. Savage.

Mr. Paracettoff - seems tired of Prague and complains, that neither we nor you write him often.

The suffering in Couplet at present must be fearful. I am glad not to see it. but I often think of it & of those who are in the midst of it.

Alfred was with me at my sisters when I received your letter. Was pleased that you thought of him & sent kind regards.

Dr. Washburn sends kind salutations

Your aff^l friend
