

31
Saw dear Mrs. Maynard. and her daughter Naples. is not as pretty place. as I had fancied "Old Mr. Beshovius" was smoking away furiously during the day - and at night sent forth a flame. which was grand and awful - We are now quietly settled in our new "Hornie". - The girls studying and practising all the time We board ourselves. as it is cheaper and we can do as we like - Rosa goes to School. half of the day. - and comes home at midday. Nellie has a music Master. and on the whole ^{we} are very contented and happy - I have not seen the College boys. who are here. for I do not know their names. Montpelli is a charming little city. and there are many interesting ruins in and around it - It was once a very wealthy place. but the destruction of the grape vines. have distressed the people. Men. who a few years ago.
had