succeeded to disperse the crowd, and now the town is quiet and an end was brought to this extreme demonstration which ^{was} becoming ever hour more and more dangerous for all the town.

On the day of ^{the} arrival of the General I was called by him & asked for the presence of the French Commissioner, Schumacher and all who accompanied them, who were at dinner to send him a guard of honor to be around him and to keep watch around the building where ~~he~~ stayed for all the time that he would be here. This was a very difficult task for me under the circumstances, but I had to accept it. For the first evening I took the rota from Papoz Mahale (Klitchor) and stayed all night ~~there~~
