

Wm N 1765

prevent further bloodshed and ^{we} grant peace and ~~leave~~ to his power ^{and} to my native land for the good of the poor and benighted population and for his own glory.

I am sorry to say that I have done little school business here, in fact my chief attention ^{and} attention has been given to other business, and it is now rare that I write even letters. My father is in Tirmore, he will probably come to spend Easter here and then return altogether to Tirmore. I shall most probably likely remain here.

It is quite long since I have heard from C^{ple}. Has Mrs Long returned, or will she soon return. I have been very anxious to know if Mr P. has received and send her the letter which some weeks ago I had send her through him. I fear Mr L. will have again to wait impatiently I hope Mr P. has looked over his words with his eyes
