

7. Profile 4:
success for Roma in business	291
7.1. A start in life	293
7.2. The family and education of the businessman	294
7.3. The professional path: „white“ or „grey“ business?	296
7.4. Authority within and outside the community	300
7.5. Dimensions of success and satisfaction.....	302
8. Profile 5:
success for Roma journalists	307
8.1. The school and the parents.....	307
8.2. The professional path	311
8.3. Ethnic affiliation and success	313
8.4. Standard of living and community life	317
8.5. Success and recognition.....	319
8.6. About the Roma in the media.....	323
8.7. Proving oneself and the burden of the community.....	325
9. Profile 6:
success for Roma musicians	327
9.1. The role of the parents and specialized education.....	328
9.2. Ethnic barriers.....	332
9.3. Standard of living, social environment, social participation.....	337
9.4. Success and recognition.....	340
10. The ethnic community regarding success
and the successful	345
10.1. The social and cultural capital of the community.....	346
10.1.1. Cultural capital as a key to success.....	347
10.1.2. Social capital and integration.....	353
10.2. The community's hierarchies.....	358
10.2.1. The Roma on success: is the representation „distorted“?.....	358
10.2.2. The feeling of being discriminated	366
10.3. The community attitude towards the successful: mediators or strangers among their own?.....	370
10.4. Poverty in the community and the individual's success.....	378
10.5. Between defensive helplessness and positive ambition.....	386
10.5.1. The perception of the successful and the unsuccessful.....	386
10.5.2. Positive ambition to improve one's status.....	391